TOWN OF EATON PROCLAMATION

2021 Dedication of the EAHS Carriage House Museum

WHEREAS, the Eaton Area Historical Society, formed in 1991 to preserve, protect and share its collection of the rich history about Eaton, Colorado's early pioneers and generations forward; and

WHEREAS, the EAHS operates for the Town of Eaton and its citizens the A.J. Eaton Home Museum, at 207 Elm Avenue, Eaton, Colorado; and

WHEREAS, to grow and enlarge for the public a space for this expanding collection of Eaton history; to continue to educate and enrich, preserve, and recognize the individuals, families, institutions, and industries that have made Eaton and its community great; and

WHEREAS, a new building on the property to be known as the Carriage House Museum will supply the needed space for this growth. This beautiful two-story structure will give home to special collections honoring education/schools, the military and Eaton's extensive agriculture history. An outdoor covered patio space will invite community to gather and enjoy; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Scott E. Moser, by virtue of authority vested in me as Mayor of the Town of Eaton, Colorado, do hereby proclaim August 1, 2021, the EAHS Carriage House Museum Dedication Day with a ribbon-cutting; and encourage Eaton residents and those from surrounding areas to enjoy the Eaton historical collections at the Museums: The A.J. Eaton Home and the Carriage House Museum.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the official seal of the Town of Eaton, Colorado, on this 15th day of July 2021.

Scott E. Moser, Mayor

ATTEST:

Margaret Jane Winter, Town Clerk
